Archival methodology

The Company's archival records are classified into the following categories:

The Records that are eligible to become archives may need to be kept permanently because they constitute evidence or for some other legal reason.

Documents which do not require permanent preservation but require years of preservation as prescribed under Applicable Law.

The Archives might consist of all the Documents prescribed or maintained as per the Preservation of Documents Policy of the Company and other Documents which are of relevance to the Company in general and the Construction and Real Estate Industry in particular. Archival records are maintained in both the formats viz., physical and Electronic Form.

The documents submitted to the stock exchange to be hosted on the website for the purpose of compliance with disclosure norms shall also be archived. Archiving of the documents to be submitted to the stock exchange, in terms of the regulation 30(8) of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 shall be done after the lapse of the preservation period of 5 years as per this policy. For the documents to be submitted to the stock exchange to comply with disclosure norms as required by any other applicable law, the documents are to be archived after the lapse of the specified / required time period.

Physical records

Paper and other records are filed appropriately in the corporate filing system as physical files which are under the control of designated officials. All physical archives are stored in the Head Office and in each of the Company's Regional Offices, Area Offices or Site Offices. The archives are maintained in a well secured area with restricted access with clear filing systems and codes.

Electronic records

Archival of electronic documents is systematic and the Designated Official is responsible for the operation and maintenance of archives in electronic format.

Statutory Compliance / Disclosure

The Company will ensure dissemination of all information as required under the Policy of Disclosure of Material Events or information, adopted by the Board at its meeting held on 12th February 2016. The Company will ensure displaying of the information in its official website, under the appropriate classification. The Company will also ensure that the disclosures that are made on its website will be available for downloading or viewing for a minimum period of five years. Further, the Company will ensure that all disclosures made by the Company that are required to be communicated to the shareholders are disseminated on its website.

AMENDMENTS:

The Board reserves the right to amend or modify this Policy in whole or in part, at any point of time. In any circumstance where the terms of this policy differ from any existing enacted law, rule, Regulation or standard governing the Company, the law, rule, Regulation or standards will take precedence over these policies and procedures until such time as this policy is changed to conform to the law, rule, Regulation or standard.
